

Spring morning in Ljubljana

Spending the morning in the capital of Slovenia is an experience that will settle in your heart. The city, which is sitting almost in the middle of the country, is not only a beautiful city visually, but it's also incredibly diverse as a cultural destination. With a castle up high over the city, a delightful little old town area, and the Ljubljanica river flowing through the middle of it all, Ljubljana is an amazing place to have a relaxed time.

Our meeting point will be bus station in Terme Čatež at 7:00 am. From there we are going by bus along the highway all the way to the city center and will alight at the famous Kongresni trg (Congress Square). Local tour guide will take us to the old city center, where we will indulge in the history and stories of Ljubljana's main attractions - from Prešeren square, which is most marked by the Franciscan church and connected with famous bridge Tromostovje, to an open market named after the greatest Slovenian architect Jože Plečnik. Next to the market is Ljubljana Cathedral. From the Magistrat with Robb's Well, we go over the Čevljarški most and past the central National and University library to Križanke and to Kongresni trg.

In the very center of the city we will board on a tourist boat that will take us along the Ljubljanica river, which gives Ljubljana an unmissable landmark with its interesting bridges and picturesque embankments.
